

GIFTS AND BEQUESTS

A BEQUEST to the charitable and educational enterprises of The Church in the Diocese is a sacred trust to an age-old almoner.

Since the days of the earliest settlers in the "new world," gifts have been entrusted to the Episcopal Church to care for the needy, the sick, the poor, the helpless young and the aged. The Church is concerned with people of every circumstance, of all ages, in the city, town and country. The tasks of the Church in these areas are extensive; their very scope commands attention.

The Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Long Island welcomes gratefully any gifts from those who wish this work to be continued and strengthened. Additional details pertaining to these matters may be obtained from the Office of the Bishop, 36 Cathedral Ave., P.O. Box 510, Garden City, NY 11530 (516 248-4800 ext. 30). Gifts and Bequests to any agency or institution of the Episcopal Diocese of Long Island are tax-exempt.
